THE DEPTH OF GENEROSITY OF OUR SUNY NEW PALTZ COMMUNITY

December 2020

I write you at a moment in time when all of us are contending with the far-reaching implications of both a global pandemic and the effects of systemic racism. There is no shortage of challenges as we look to the future. Yet against the backdrop of this stark reality, we recognize the great opportunities that lie ahead and the positive role that each of us can play in impacting the future of thousands of SUNY New Paltz students each year.

This report represents one of the ways that alumni, donors, and friends of the College, such as you, have taken on transformative roles through the legacy of private philanthropic support. In particular, the creation of endowed funds has great and lasting influence—far beyond the life of any one individual—and the endowed funds listed here positively impact hundreds of individual students each year, as well as our campus community as a whole.

This edition of our Endowment Funds Report exemplifies the depth of generosity of our community—extraordinarily evident through the vision and foresight of the funds listed here. These funds create innumerable opportunities for our students and often allow them to continue their education without the weight of financial burdens or other complications.

This year, with the launch of Soaring Higher—The Campaign for SUNY New Paltz, the first comprehensive campaign in the College's history, we have reached new heights in giving, and we are closing in on our $23 million campaign goal. As we approach that goal in the year ahead, we are grateful for your support—especially scholarship support that goes directly to our students. Now more than ever New Paltz students need these opportunities.

Thank you for all that you have done and continue to do, even in the face of great adversity. And thank you for considering how your support may grow and have an even greater impact on our students and their future.

With gratitude,

Erica Marks
Executive Director, SUNY New Paltz Foundation
Vice President, Development and Alumni Relations

A GUIDE TO ENDOWMENT FUNDS

This is the fourth edition of the Endowment Funds Report for the SUNY New Paltz Foundation. This report lists funds currently held, their purpose, and the market value of each (principal plus accumulated earnings and appreciation), as of the close of our fiscal year 2019, which ended on June 30, 2019. All funds include a six-digit Foundation account number following the description, providing donors a quick reference when making a donation or inquiring about a fund.

There are three kinds of endowed funds listed in this book:

- A general endowed scholarship fund, with no restrictions, established with a minimum gift of $25,000.
- A restricted scholarship endowment fund established with a minimum gift of $40,000.
- A program endowment fund established with a minimum gift of $50,000.

The funds in this book are organized first by the School with which they are associated. These sections are followed by funds affiliated with: Experiential Learning, Research, and Study Abroad; funds designated for the Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art; and, lastly, general funds or ones serving a unique audience or purpose.

- Interwoven among the endowments are funds marked in development. These funds have been created and are in the process of attaining the current minimum thresholds to become fully endowed.
- Funds marked with an asterisk (*) were created before our current endowment threshold was established. Though considered fully endowed, they do not produce a spendable balance to use for their designated purpose and are opportunities for further philanthropic support.

Endowments help support the educational programs that benefit our students and our community. The earnings and market appreciation of an endowed fund benefit the College, our faculty, and our students in perpetuity. The investment objectives of the SUNY New Paltz Foundation are to manage its funds in a manner that will maximize the benefit intended by the donor and to generate a total return on assets to support the programs of the College.

ONE-TIME OR RECURRING GIFT USING A CREDIT CARD

To make a one-time or recurring gift online using your MasterCard, Visa, Discover or American Express, please fill out our secure online giving form located at: www.newpaltz.edu/give

If you have questions or prefer to make your donation using a credit card over the phone, please call us at: 845-257-3976.

MATCHING GIFTS

Many companies offer an employee matching gift program that can double or triple the amount of the gift. Retirees, spouses of employees and board members may also be eligible. Check with your company's human resources department to determine eligibility and obtain a matching gift application.

TRIBUTES

A gift to SUNY New Paltz can be made to honor or remember a family member or another loved one—or as a tribute to a faculty member, colleague or friend. An endowed fund, to support a scholarship or program, is another meaningful way to establish a permanent legacy for the donor or in tribute to a special person.

SECURITIES

Through making a gift of stock—by transferring appreciated securities—you receive a gift credit for the average high/low sale price of the stock on the date of transfer, avoid capital gains tax and may receive a deduction on your federal income tax returns.
