Eligible students must be:

- First-year international undergraduate applicants of any major.
- Graduates from or currently enrolled at a secondary school outside the U.S.
- Applicants who demonstrate interest and initiative in promoting intercultural learning and exchange.
- Applicants who meet the admission criteria and adhere to the deadlines of SUNY New Paltz. Students can apply for admission online at suny.edu/applysuny or commonapp.org.
- Applicants who complete the one-page scholarship application and a 500-1000 word essay or a 2-5 minute video by April 1, 2020 describing their aspirations to conduct projects, research, employment, or other experiences that will advance intercultural learning.
- Applicants who demonstrate financial resources for the remaining expenses not covered by the scholarship.

If awarded, students must confirm their enrollment at SUNY New Paltz within 15 days of their notification via payment of the $250 USD pre-enrollment deposit and completion of all required immigration/financial documentation provided by the Center for International Programs.
