Overview

We hope you enjoy Thomas Morley's "Sing We and Chant It," an English Renaissance madrigal that encourages us to indulge in the pleasures of youth while it lasts. Following this work is our performance of a rousing sacred choral motet written by Lodovico Grossi da Viadana titled "Exultate Justi." It is the Italian Renaissance equivalent of "Strike Up the Band," extolling listeners to lift up their voices and instruments in praise. Finally, "Muié Rendôra" is a work by Brazilian conductor and arranger C.A. Pinto Fonseca. It combines two popular folk tunes, one being especially lively and flirtatious. Thank you for being such a wonderful audience.
